

IRENE PETITTO

IRENE * Irene Petitto * - Soprano Voice

Graduated from the conservatory in opera singing, she was the historical female voice of In Tormentata Quietè until 2017, she is present in the last two records "Cromagia" (2014) and "Finestatico" (2017). Previously she played in several symphonic metal bands between which Mercury Eye, whose 2010 album was the demo of the month of Metal Hammer magazine the following year. In the past he has collaborated with the Mantuan composer Filippo Lui, creator of Crystal Music, a project with which they perform in important Italian theaters and on equally important occasions such as the Venice Carnival, in which the project receives the "Golden Lion" award to the Great Talents "by the Mario del Monaco and Venice in the World Association. In 2019 he won the televoting challenge by participating in the television program "Mezzogiorno in Famiglia" live on Rai2.